CAPT. S. F. McBRIDE, 72, ILL FOUR YEARS, DIES

Was Veteran of Civil War-Leaves a Daughter and a Grandson. Funeral This Evening.

S. F. McBRIDE.

Capt. S. F. McBride, seventy-two years old, a resident of Washington for the last twenty-five years, died yesterday at his home, 9 7th street southeast. Funeral services are to be held at the family home this evening at 6:30 o'clock. The body will be taken to Frederick, Md., for interment.

Capt. McBride was a native of Butler, Pa. In 1861 he enlisted in the Union army at Pittsburgh, as a member of the 100d Pennsylvania Regiment, and served throughout the war. For a number of years he resided in West Virginia and took an active part in politics as the editor of a republican paper at Hinton. Subsequently he removed to Washing on and held a position in the government printing office. Lately he was foreman of the patent office branch of the man of the patent office branch of the printing office.

He had been ill for about four years, the result of a paralytic stroke which he suffered while he was absent from the city on his annual leave. He leaves his daughter, Mrs. Edward Beuchert, and a grandson, Foster Beuchert. Two brothers, Stephen McBride of Butler, Pa., and Robert McBride of California, also survive.

Capt. McBride was a member of George H. Thomas Post, G. A. R.

PREDICTS LYNCHING BEE OF ENGLISH MILITANTS

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, Arriving in New York, Also Fears War Over Home Rule.

NEW YORK, May 28.-Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, the British novelist, accompanied by Lady Doyle, arrived at New York yesterday on the White Star liner Olympic.

Conan Doyle said that England had stood all that it could from the militant suffragettes, and that he anticipated "a wholesale lynching bee. "The English government," he said. 'follows public opinion, and thus far public opinion has not demanded the en-public opinion has not demanded the entire suppression of the suffragette. But it is on the point of doing so, and when the English mob is thoroughly aroused it is not a respecter of sex."

This is his first visit to this country for twenty years.

When Sir Arthur was informed that no general uprising had followed the recent passage of the home rule bill he said:

China has appropriated $1,500,000 for its exhibit and has asked for 50 per cent ore floor space than could be given. position today that the avenue of con-cessions at the exposition will be of-ficially styled "The Zone" and not "El Camino," as first agreed upon. On "The Zone" will be assembled all the amuse-ment features that made the Miwday plaisance famous at Chicago's world's fair in 1893.

President C. C. Moore received word to day from Lisbon, Portugal, that the national legislative house has passed an appropriation of $62,000 for Portugal's representation in the exposition and that its passage by the senate is assured.

MAJ. LOEFFLER DISTRESSED.

Illness Prevented Veteran White House Doorkeeper Seeing Roosevelt. Maj. Charles B. A. Loeffler, U. S. A., or more than forty years doorkeeper for the President, is distressed because illness prevented him from admitting Col. Roosevelt when he called at the White House Tuesday. He feels that it is the biggest event that he has ever missed participation in at the White House during the nearly half century that he has een on duty there.

Maj. Loeffler has during the last week been confined to his apartments with a evere attack of bronchitis. He was omewhat comforted by the fact that he former President noted his absence and sent him a message expressing hor or his early recovery.

Every season we feature their garments as exceptional values-hundreds of Washington men are wearing their clothing today, and many of them have worn this brand for the past twenty years.

The manufacturers expect their suits to sell for $20 to $45, and consequently stipulate that we do not use their name in advertising; but in every coat is sewed an iron-clad guaranty bearing their name, and to this we add our personal guaranty.

Don't get the idea of a "job lot." No store in this country opened its season with a stock that showed greater variety in materials, or patterns, or sizes. In style and quality it's identically the same that we have carried in our regular stock, but today we offer you prices that are lower than we were compelled to pay for our earlier orders.

There are hundreds of the popular Tartan Plaids, Homespuns, Club Checks-the serviceable and always-fashionable Blue Serges-in fact, everything you could possibly wish. In the large line of Mohairs there are the unusual sizes for stout men who find cool comfort in suits of this
